		Have you ever been issued a license by a jurisdiction outside Lee County that was revoked, suspended or voluntarily relinquished? If, yes, attach an explanation of the circumstances involved.

VI. Application Review:

Your application should be complete at the time it is submitted to the Contractor Licensing Office. Failure to submit a complete application may delay review or result in a denial of your application. You will be scheduled for the next available hearing after receipt of your complete application. However, all material must be received ten (10) days prior to hearing date. The Construction Licensing Board will review your application at a regularly scheduled meeting. (Meetings are at 6:00 P.M., the first Tuesday and third Thursday of each month at 1825 Hendry Street, 2nd Floor, Fort Myers, FL. 33901.)

You will receive a letter confirming the date and time your application will be presented to the Construction Licensing Board. County regulations require that you be present at this meeting to address any questions the Board may have concerning your application. Failure to attend this meeting to answer questions may result in a denial of your application. In order to be prepared for this meeting, you should retain a complete copy of this application.

VII. Certification:

I hereby certify that all of the information in this application is true and correct to the best of my knowledge. As a basis for the grant of licensure, I agree to comply with all codes, laws and regulations applicable to my trade and I will not undertake any work that is outside the scope of the license I have been granted. I understand that any misrepresentation with respect to the information provided in this application, or future submissions applicable to retaining any licensing granted to me, may be grounds for the denial or revocation of my Lee County Certificate of Competency.
